The Madison County Council in accordance with The Madison County Council in accordance with I.C. 6-1.1-17-3.5 and direction of the DLGF has reviewed the 2014 proposed budgets and finds how they compare with other taxing units within the County. Your budget has been compared in 3 ways: 1) As it compares to other taxing units with the County; 2) As it compares to the 6-year non-farm income growth for Madison County; and 3) As it compares to the 6-year non-farming growth for the State of Indiana.

Based upon these reviews and on current information available to it, the Madison County Council makes a non-binding recommendation at this time that your Taxing Unit budget be within the income growth, taking into account the 2012 property tax caps, the reduction in COIT/Public Safety LOIT income, and to not exceed the maximum available levy. Accordingly, your proposed budget should be revisited.

Jane Lyons
Madison County Auditor

John Bostic, President
