

Job Posting

Position: County Highway Engineer
Department: Madison County Highway Department
Job Category: PAT
Hours: Varied FLSA: Exempt Status: Full-time

Incumbent serves as County Highway Engineer whom is responsible for directing all public works projects as prescribed by statute.

DUTIES:

Baccalaureate degree in Engineering or equivalent training and experience, leading to thorough understanding of the principles, methods, theories, and procedures of Engineering.

Through knowledge and ability to use accepted accounting and engineering principles and practices and through the knowledge of county government budgeting and taxing procedures.

Ability to direct and supervise others and provide leadership for employees, and effectively communicate with contractors, consultants, citizens, community leaders, and city, state, and federal officials during varied situations and circumstances.

Must meet all state qualifications requirements including being registered engineer licensed in the State of Indiana Board of Registration for Professional Engineers.

Must be INDOT, Employee In Responsible Charge (ERC) certified or the ability to be certified through INDOT within 30 calendar days of employment.

Must have experience in highway engineering.

Must be bondable.

Must be a resident of Indiana.

JOB REQUIREMENTS:

Baccalaureate degree in Engineering or equivalent training and experience, leading to thorough understanding of the principles, methods, theories, and procedures of Engineering.

Through knowledge and ability to use accepted accounting and engineering principles and practices and through the knowledge of county government budgeting and taxing procedures.

Ability to direct and supervise others and provide leadership for employees, and effectively communicate with contractors, consultants, citizens, community leaders, and city, state, and federal officials during varied situations and circumstances.

Must meet all state qualifications requirements including being registered engineer licensed in the State of Indiana Board of Registration for Professional Engineers.

Must be INDOT, Employee In Responsible Charge (ERC) certified or the ability to be certified through INDOT within 30 calendar days of employment.

Must have experience in highway engineering.

Must be bondable.

Must be a resident of Indiana.

Submit resume and 3 references to Human Resources, HR@madisoncounty.in.gov. Position will remain open until filled.

Madison County Government is an Equal Opportunity Employer